

I'm a CITB registered employer who has recruited an apprentice, what support is available for me?

Travel To Train grant

We help employers with accommodation and travel costs for each eligible apprentice.

Employers can claim back 80% of accommodation costs for an apprentice, where an overnight stay is required. To access this grant, you will need to book accommodation through our website, using a CITB approved accommodation provider.

The grant can also be used for on-campus residential accommodation, contact us to find out how to apply. This grant is not available for privately arranged accommodation.

Help with travel expenses is also available where the cost exceeds £20 per week, for each eligible apprentice.

For more information, visit our website

Apprenticeship grants

We pay grants to employers who have apprentices on approved apprenticeships.

Employers can receive up to £2500 per year per apprentice while the apprentice is in learning.

You can also receive up to a £3,500 achievement grant, when your apprentice has completed their training successfully.

For more information, visit our website

